YELLOW JACK IN ILLINOIS.

The Epidemic Gradually Pushing Northward,

NEW CASES IN NEW ORLEANS.

Southern Part of Illinois Quarantined Against Fever Districts—New Case in Mobile—Number of Deaths.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20—Two suspicious cases of sickness at Cairo, Ill., have been pronounced to be yellow fever by Dr. Guiteras, the yellow fever expert. They have been carefully isolated in the marine hospital.

The southern part of Illinois, below the Baltimore and Ohio railroad running east from St. Louis, has quarantined against Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and East Cairo, Kentucky, where several cases of a suspicious nature have been found. The reports from the infected points show up as follows: New Orleans, new cases eight, deaths two; Edward Mississippi, new cases four; Mobile, new cases eleven, deaths one; Scranton Mississipi new cases three.

THE JIG IS UP WITH REYNARD.

Greensboro Fox-Hunting Club is Off For Its Annual Meet.

The Greensboro Fox-hunting club (one of the members says it should be called the Fox-catching club, but we will wait and see) is preparing to go to Manchester for its annual meet. The club has excellent camping grounds there and the level country makes the cross country riding comparatively fine. The sand does not hold the trail long when dry but late rains are expected to improve it in that respect. The horses, dogs, camnecessities, chef and paraphenalia generally will be shipped tonight while the hunters will go down in the morning. There will be some eight or ten in the party among whom are the following: Mayor Nelson, Andrew Brooks, Capt. Neil Ellington, James F. Jordan, Col. "Buddy" Barker, of the city of Climax, Charles McKnight, and D. Schenck, Jr. We could not learn the names of the others. Members of the club say that what they are prepared to do for the foxes will leave little to be desired.

On a Glorious "Jag."

Policemen who stay around the depot come in contact with various kinds of people, but Policeman Jordan struck a drunken fellow last night who was out of the ordinary. Now we do not mean to convey the idea that a drunken man is something unusual, but the condition this fellow was in was something unusual. He was as limp as a drunken man generally gets and imagined that he was "lord of all he surveyed." He wanted to go to High Point, but didn't think Policeman Jordan knew his business when he directed him to take the south-bound train. Mr. Jordan worried along with the fellow and finally got him off.

Detained by the Quarantine.

Messrs. S. H. Hodgin, Oscar Moffitt and Robert Wilson, graduates of Guilford College, were to have left this morning for Haverford College, near Philadelphia, where they will take a post graduate course in that institution. It was their intention to go to Norfolk and then take a boat, but not knowing it was necessary to procure health certificates, they were not able to leave.

They provided themselves with the necessary certificates and left on the noon train.

Four Hours Late.

The northbound vestibule, due here at 10:44 p. m., was about four hours late last night. The delay, of course, was caused by the yellow fever scare farther south, as all the mails have to be fumigated and the passengers examined for health certificates.

All the through trains are now delayed, and the delay is longer when there are more passengers and a heavier mail.

A Crazy Colored Woman.

A demented young colored woman was brought down from up about High Point today to be confined until arrangements can be made to place her in the hospital for the colored insane at Goldsboro. Her name is Champion, and she was formerly a student at Bennett seminary.

Attention K. of P.

All members of Greensboro Lodge, No. 80, K. of P., are urged to be at the meeting to-night. Work in second rank.

JOHN THOMAS, C. C.

A. H. STACK, K. of R. and S.

HE CLIMBED THE WALL.

How an Active Greensboro Citizen Dodged a Runaway Horse.

This morning a runaway horse, having broken loose from a wagon in South Greensboro, came dashing up South Elm street making time that only a runaway horse can make, with part of the harness and reins dangling at his heels.

In front of the McAdoo House the flying animal grazed the wheels of a carriage. People and dogs were dodging and running in true scared fashion. At the junction of South Elm and Washington the horse attempted to turn into East Washington, missed the street and struck the sidewalk by the National Bank building.

At this moment spectators held their breath, for right in the path of the frightened steed stood Mr. Henessee, who runs the lunch room at the Southern depot, with no apparent chance of escape. It was only for a moment, for Mr. Henessee was equal to the emergency. Hastily glancing around he decided and acted in the same breath. Like a flash he went up the side of the brick wall just in time for the horse to pass beneath him.

It was easily and nicely done, and not a bit too soon. When he struck the ground he stood bewildered a moment, then realizing that all danger was over, he laughed with his friends who were watching him.

The horse was held up at the next corner unhurt.

THE WINSTON TRAIN ROCKED.

The Rock Comes Very Near Killing a Passenger.

Saturday night just after the Winston train had pulled out from Kernersville some miscreant threw a rock into the train which came near putting an end to one man's life. The gentleman was reclining on a seat on the left hand side of the car with his head in the open window.

When the rock came whizzing through the window it tore a hole in the crown of his straw hat and went on through the car, barely missing the head of T. L. Rawley, of Winston, who occupied a seat on the opposite side of the car.

Had the rock struck either of these gentlemen on the head it would have meant death, for it was thrown with terrible force.

Of course no one knows who threw the rock, but the matter will be investigated by the railroad authorities. This thing of rocking a train is a serious offense, the punishment for which is severe.

TO-NIGHT'S ATTRACTION.

Dr. Blue Mountain Joe's Show at West's Park.

Tonight Dr. Blue Mountain Joe the Indian medicine man, will begin a series of free entertainments, given by a well selected company of performers, assisted by an orchestra.

The entertainments given by this company are strictly first-class, moral and refined and have been patronized by the elite everywhere they have appeared. They come here highly endorsed by the public and press of the many cities they have appeared in in North Carolina. A complete change of programme will be given nightly. Admission free, seats 10cts. Special carpeted reserved seats for ladies and escorts 10cts extra.

NELSON A. MILES IN LONDON.

Will Tour England, Scotland and Ireland Before Returning.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—General Nelson A. Miles, of the United States Army and his aides de campe, arrived here today. They will make a tour of Scotland and Ireland before embarking for home.

The Hogansville Matter.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

ATLANTA, Sept. 20.—The recent shooting of the negro postmaster at Hogansville threatens to cause trouble for the people of that town. The postmaster has just finished a three days investigation of the outrage.

Feeling is high between the blacks and whites and further trouble is feared.

Presidential Appointments.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The President today made the following appointments: Archibald J. Sampson. of Arizona, minister to Ecuador; E. G. Kennedy, of South Dakota, United States Marshal of South Dakota.

The Attention of those who wear shirts is called to the new ad, of Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud.

Henry Hunter talks about vegetables in his ad today.

"J. K." coffee is the subject of J.H. Phipp's advertisement in this issue.

DEATH RATE 14 PER CENT.

The Falling Temperature Comes to Her Aid.

CUTTING OFF THE FOOD SUPPLIES

Turning the Hose on the Houses of the Poor—Rigid Inspection of all Trains and Steamboats.

By Wire to the THE TELEGRAM.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 20.—A heavy fall in the temperature has taken place here; the weather is cool and clear today. If this continues it will probably prevent the rapid incubation of fever germs. The situation otherwise is not materially changed in this city. The death rate is now fourteen and one-half per cent. whereas it was sixteen per cent. in 1878. The relative spread of the disease has not exceeded the expectations of the authorities.

The board of health will close all second-hand clothing stores. The fire engines are today drenching many houses in the poorer districts. Hattiesburg is discussing the meat and bread problem, as the quarantine has cut off her food supplies.

A number of towns have decided to modify their restrictions against the receipt of freight. The Marine hospital service began today an inspection of the baggage of steamboats and trains.

JAILED ON A CHARGE OF MURDER.

Enraged Citizens Prepared to Lynch If the Law Fails.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

LITTLE ROCK, AKK. Sept. 20.—Jeff Jerder of Constable and Lee Garrett, a well known resident of Pocahontas were placed in jail at that place at five o'clock this morning on a charge of murder. The enraged citizens are prepared to swing them to a tree should the law fail to deal out justice. Minor Gage, their bitter enemy, was found riddled with bullets after they had attempted to arrest him on a charge of slander brought by Garrett.

STRIKERS RETURN TO WORK.

Women Still Turbulent But Troops Will Probably Be Removed.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

HAZLETON, Sept. 20th.—All necessity for keeping the troops here seems to have been removed by the return to work of the striking miners today. It is regarded as probable that the militia will be sent home in a few days.

The women in Audenreid are still turbulent and today they again raided the washeries at the mines and drove out the men who had returned to work.

WAR LORD AND FRANCIS JOSEPH

Crowds Throng the Way and Cheer the Royal Visitor.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

BUDAPEST, Sept. 20.—Emperor William, of Germany, arrived at ten o'clock this morning and was greeted by Emperor Francis Joseph and the ministers and archdukes. The day is being observed as a public holiday here. Great crowds thronged the magnificently decorated road to the palace and cheered the imperial visitors enthusiastically as they passed.

Bank Fails at Benton Harbor.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

BENTON HARBOR' Sept. 20.—The first National Bank of this place has failed. There was considerable excitement when the crash was made known, and crowds gathered about the closed doors of the bank.

The bank was capitalized at fifty thousand dollars, had a suplus of six thousand and deposits amounting to ninety thousand dollars.

Germany Will Not Retaliate.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

BERLIN, Sept 20.—As a result of a canvass made by the Cologne Gazette among the importing and exporting firms in the Cologne district, a memorial has been sent to imperial chancellor, Prince Hohenlohe, saying that most of the exporters and all the importers are opposed to a tariff war with the United States.

Goes Into Liquidation.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

RICO, Col., Sept. 20.—The Bank of Rico closed its doors today to go into volutary liquidation by order of President McClure. Depositors will be paid in full shortly.

Spencer House Bulletin.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The Spencer House bulletin of this morning says that the Duchess of Marlborough and her son are resting quietly, and both are progressing very satisfactorily.

HANNA'S MINES START UP.

Men in Poor Condition for Work and Have Accomplished Little.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 20.—A number of the mines of M. A. Hanna & Co., at Dillonvale, were opened this morning. The railroads connecting Cleveland and the other lake ports with the mining districts have not moved any considerable amount of coal as yet. It is believed movements of any amount cannot be commenced before Tuesday. It is explained here that, after the long period of idleness, the hands of miners are tender, and men employed are forced to quit work, owing to sore hands.

The miners at work are consequently doing very little. No coal has been brought here for speculative purposes since the strike was settled, and the probabilities are that there will be no heavy shipments toward the lakeboard until all the miners are at work again. The dealers are waiting until the business resumes a normal condition before making purchases for their customers.

Critical Situation in India.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

SIMLA, Sept. 18.—The reverses suffered by the British force under General Jeffreys in the attack upon the Mohmands in the valley north of Camp Anayal is regarded most seriously, and it is stated in semi-official circles that if the situation does not improve promptly the whole border will be in arms.

Another Pigeon From Andree.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 20.—A dispatch from Hammerfest, the northernmost town of Europe, says that the whaling ship Falkenamved has arrived there bringing a pigeon bearing a message which reads as follows: "July 31st, 12:30 noon; longitude 120.5 east, good voyage toward the east, 10 degrees south. All well. Andree."

Wharton & McAllister having promptly rented the house advertised in THE TELEGRAM, offer another today. See first page.

LOCOMOTIVE SLEDGE.

Secretary Alger's Plan to Get Provisions to Starving Miners.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Secretary Alger, who has been anxiously planning to get supplies into the Yukon region this winter to relieve the almost certain starvation now staring the hordes of treasure seekers in the face, has hit upon a novel plan of trying a locomotive sledge to run on the river after the hard freeze sets in. This engine was designed for the logging camps and Secretary Alger has tried it with some success in his own big logging camps in Michigan.

It will travel about twelve miles an hour and is capable of drawing an enormous load. The chief problem is that of fuel and the Secretary has invited Joseph Ladue, the founder of Dawson, to a conference on the practical value of the plan.

CONSERVATISM OF DEMOCRACY.

So much has been said within the past year about radical tendencies in the Democratic party, so much that is purely nonsense and may be dismissed contemptuously as quite harmless, but some things that cannot be dismissed, that we print herewith a paragraph from Sentor Daniel's reply to Governor O'Ferrall:

"The Democracy is the true conservative party of the country. It would preserve the trial by jury. It is an hereditary right. It would not displace it by "government by injunction." It would preserve free speech, and not lift judges, presidents or governors beyond the pale of the criticism of freemen. It would preserve home rule, and not consolidate government, and found tyranny on Federal election force bills. It would preserve the value of the property by preserving the volume of money that sustains prices, and not by playing into the hands of stock-gamblers. It would pay public debts according to the contracts made, and as the Supreme court of the United States has interpreted them, and not invent new contracts more oppressive to those who bear the burden, and agrandizing to those who get the benefit. It will hold to decisions of a hundred years, and not fail to criticise judicial novelties. 'Woe be unto him that removeth the landmark.' Because it is conservative of the rights of man, I am a Democrat.

"Respectfully,
"JOHN W. DANIEL."

There are few men better qualified to speak authoritatively as to what Democracy stands for than John W. Daniel. Weighty in its councils for many years, an able exponent of its principles in the Senate, on the stump, in the conventions of the party, if any man may claim to know its true spirit and inwardness he is the man. What he says is, therefore, worthy of the attention of all fair-minded men, and especially of those who are in sympathy with its principles but fear it will be too radical in its management of public affairs.

It is also well to recall that the old taunt of the opponents of Democracy was "the never learn and never forget Bourbon Democracy." So far from being radical, the attitude of the Democratic party today, State and National, is only that of conservatism aroused and alert against a grave menace. The vaporings of a few windy demagogues intoxicated with their own eloquence is not to be taken as the true exponents of Democracy; all parties have these friends from whom they would fain be saved and it is no exception; but deep down in the rank and file of the party will be found that tenacious observance to the basic principles of our government which is the only wise conservatism possible with us.

Conservatism may be militant as well as passive. The party that fights aggression and encroachment on time honored principles, and even goes considerable lengths in so doing, does not necessarily cease to be conservative. The party that quiety submits to encroachment is not conservative on that account, it is only imbecile or indifferent. Conservatism may not only say "thus far and no farther," it may also proceed to recover ground already lost.

THAT is a most amicable way of settling things they have down in Guatemala. A revolution is going on as usual and when the insurgents capture a fort the captives join hands with the captors and march on to the next post. Evidently, when the war is over, there will be no occasion for oratory over the closing of the bloody chasm.

THE British government has stopped California shippers from importing wheat in bags made by convicts, but it has raised no protest as yet against the importation of California heiresses whose fathers chose to dig gold for themselves rather than dirt for the government back in the forties.

THE the report by eminent scientists that three cent Bowery whiskey is comparatively harmless would suggest that the joint in that delectable quarter has a pull in the realm of science as well as politics.

APPARENTLY the adherents of the party that is in is divisible into two parts: pie seekers and pension seekers.

THE Bering Sea sealing question will probably not be settled and sealed for some time to come.

IT IS only fair to presume that the strike of shoe lasters will be somewhat protracted.

A Change of Name.

The firm name of H. W. Silsby and Company whose market reports have been appearing in the TELEGRAM is changed today to that of W. A. Porterfield and Company. This step is taken because of the similarity in name between this name and the Silsby & Company, which recently failed. There was no connection between the two firms. The firm of Porterfield and Company will keep a deposit in local banks sufficient to cover all liabilities here.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Every Wife

feels an indescribable dread of the danger attendant upon the most critical period of her life. Becoming a mother should be a source of joy, but the suffering and danger of the ordeal makes its anticipation one of misery.

Mother's Friend

NEWS OF THE TAR HEEL STATE.

A train hand was run over at Wilson and had both feet cut off.

Some of the insurance men are claiming that a southern company can't succeed.

Of the eighty convicts in the penitentiary half were sent out to the various state farms to pick cotton today.

The authorities of the Tennessee centennial are urging Governor Russell to name December 7th as "North Carolina Day."

Captaid J. H. Fuller, superintendent of the Soldier's Home will never be able to walk again, owing to the hip injury he received from a fall.

W. D. Moore's arm was torn off in his cotton gin hear Raleigh Saturday. He was removing motes from the gin. The arm was amputated near the shoulder.

Senator Butler says Governor Russell is the greatest governor since Vance and that in a few days he will remove the two Wilsons, railway commissioners.

Unless the Governor removes the Wilsons today the Railroad Commission will meet tomorrow to fix a cotton rate for this state and pass upon several minor matters.

It is ascertained that people at Elizabeth City believe Lieutenant W. J. Griffin, who was drowned, was alive and clinging to his capsized boat from Thursday to Sunday.

The railroad commission meets next Thursday, to take up the matter of adjusting cotton freight rates, upon the petition of the North Carolina Freight Association of Greensboro.

The main building at the Presbyterian orphanage at Barium Springs is complete, at a cost of $14,000, and there is $900 cash on hand. There are eighty orphans at that place.

The Italian barque Nord Amerca, Cafiero, master, was seized at Wilmington by the United States marshal under libel from the United States court, charged with smuggling.

Gen. Thos. L. Clingman, of Yadkin county, was carried to the hospital at Morganton. His mind has been affected for some time, but his health and appetite are good, and he talks nearly all the time about something to eat.

Secretary J. T. B. Hoover says that by the middle of October the shoe factory and tannery of the state Farmer's Alliance at Hillsboro, will be in operation. The employes have been secured. Hoover says the alliance is improving and reorganizing.

Joseph E. Johnson, a well known Raleigh boy, was granted a license as a registered pharmacist for the State of New York at a recent meeting of the State Board of Pharmacy in Yonkers, N. Y. Mr. Johnson is the son of J. J. Johnson, and is well known in Raleigh.

A new board of directors of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad will be appointed next week by the Governor, as the present members on the part of the State were appointed to fill unexpired terms of directors who were removed. The directors meet Wednesday and the stockholders Thursday.

The portrait of the three colonels of the Twenty-Sixth North Carolina regiment to be presented to the state on Wednesday of the state fair, will be received by Governor Russell or some one designated by him. The portraits are full length. That of Lane is from a war time full length photograph. That of Vance is from a war photograph of the head. The hair falls to his shoulders. The portrait of Burgwyn is from one in oil.

The state board of tax equalization has completed the summary of the returns of property values, as follows: Number of acres of land 27,763,853, value $110,463,977; town lots 82,998, value $44,886,685; horses 172,708, value $5,547,920; mules 125,052, value $4,786,976; cattle 594,332, value $4,175,556; hogs 1,280,140, value $1,582,876; sheep 334,280, value $317;496; bicycles 5,822, value $128,561; unenumerated property $58,755,100; bank stock $2,739,846; foreign building and loan stock $146,201; state building and loan stock $134,808; dogs $3,184; total $234,142,594. There turns out to be no increase in the total over last year. The falling off is in bank stock, $480,000. Mecklenburg county failed to report any, while last year it reported $468,000.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for consumption, coughs and colds. I cannot say enough for its merits.' Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

GENERAL NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

The body of the late Ogden Goelet was interred.

Cattle are dying in some southern Indiana counties for want of snfficient water.

A strike of shoe lasters began in the factories of Brockton, Mass., and its vicinity.

Bessemer pig-iron has advanced 50 cents, to $10 a ton, at Cleveland, O., with a firm market.

The Coal Trust case, set for trial at Saratoga, N. Y., Saturday, will be argued September 24.

In New York officers of the Citizens' Union are considering candidates to complete the municipal ticket.

Merchants' excursion tickets from some southern points have been cancelled on account of the yellow fever.

John Brigman, under arrest at St. Louis, Mo., is wanted at Memphis, Tenn., for assault to kill and jail-breaking.

It is reported at Williamson, W. Va., that Captain and Elias Hatfield, wanted on the charge of murder, are about to surrender.

A chemist in New York, who has analyzed the three-cent Bowery whisky, says it is less hurtful than some higher-priced whisky.

Oscar Van Lincke, of Penn Yann, N. Y., arrested recently at New York for smuggling diamonds from Germany, has been held for trial.

The National Council of United American Mechanics, which has closed its session in Baltimore, Md., will meet next year at Cleveland, Ohio.

An order has been issued at St. Louis, Mo., for the arrest of Treasurer John E. Reidy, of the Police Relief Association, who is said to be short $6,270.

General Gobin, commander of the troops at Hazelton, finds himself handicapped because the soldiers can not fight the women who are taking a leading part in the scenes of violence there.

Pastor Johnson, a delegate from Maryland to the National Colored Baptist Convention in Boston, scored the white church leaders in a speech and proposed that his race should run its church affairs independently.

Robert Hoke, a white man, cut the throat, from ear to ear, of Policeman John Goss, of Brookland, a suburb of Columbia, while the officer was attempting to arrest his brother. Hoke mounted a horse and escaped. The policeman died instantly.

The expert sent by the naval ordnance department to Hampton Roads to examine one of the turret guns of the battleship Indiana, has returned to the department and reports that there is no sign of any crack in the gun, and that the slight depression in the metal that was mistaken for one is no more than a powder mark.

In the Dismal Swamp, it is said, the forest fires are now driving the wild animals, birds, reptiles and every living thing before them, sending volumes of smoke towards Norfolk, Portsmouth and surrounding country. The swamp has not been ablaze as fierce as now for several years, and railway passengers, especially those who travel in the night, describe the scene as one of awful grandeur.

Dr. Long in Salisbury.

The Salisbury Daily Sun has the following kind notice of Dr. J. W. Long and family who have just moved to that city from High Point:

"Dr. J. W. Long and family arrived last night from High Point and will make their home in this city. They are stopping at the Central hotel for the present, but will move into the house recently vacated by W. Smithdeal as soon as the furniture can be placed.

"The Sun along with all the citizens who are acquainted with Dr. Long gladly welcome him and his excellent family into our midst.

"As noted some time since Dr. Long will conduct a hospital in this city. It will be opened as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made."

Diaz After The Lynchers.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 19.—Orders have been given to investigate the lynching of Arroyo. President Diaz has decided that the inquiry be most rigorous and that the guilty parties be severely punished, as he feels that the act was a reproach to the nation, which has taken pride in the fact that lynch law has been unknown here. Twenty-odd men arrested, are still in custody and formal papers are being drawn up in their cases.

A MORNING HYMN.

Lines by a Citizen, Republished by Request.

Aurora's blush bespeaks the morn,
Before old Sol comes up to view;
Light's pearly gates are open thrown,
and out she glides in roseate hue.
Affrighted Somnus now takes flight,
And following hard the stars pursue,
While on her ebon wings the night
Flies off, and leaves th'unclouded blue.

The joyful lark high soars on wing
And far his matin notes are spread,
High in the loftiest heavens to ring—
For there to hail the sun he's sped—
While all the warblers in each grove,
Waked by the echo from his strain,
Pour forth their gladsome songs of love
And then, like him, take wing again.

And now, behold! the morning breaks
With all its beauty on our sight,
Gilding the mountains, seas and lakes
With lambent flames of liquid light;
While playful zephyrs kiss the flowers,
Inhaling sweetness from each bud,
Then glide away thro' groves and bowers

See, dew drops bright, like diamonds lie
Now sparkling on each leaf and stem
That quivers 'neath the sun-lit sky—
Given to earth a gorgeous sheen—
While all the blossoms of the field
Like queens arrayed in costly gems
Send up the fragrance that they yield
To heaven, on morn's first golden beams.

How calm the heavens and earth appear,
And sweet the silence that holds reign
In majestic beauty everywhere,
With all that's lovely in her train.
Oh! peerless hour of early morn,
What would be earth without thy charms
But one eternal bitter storm
Of coarse debate and false alarms!

THE YELLOW FEVER SCARE.

A Greensboro Gentleman Writes Concerning It.

TRAVELING A RISKY BUSINESS.

Montgomery Enforces a Rigid Quarantine Against All Who Have Been in the Fever Districts.

THE TELEGRAM is in receipt of the following letter from a Greensboro gentleman, who is traveling down south:

Traveling in the south, at the present time, is a risky business. Montgomery enforces a rigid quarantine against all who have been in yellow fever districts within the last twenty days, and unless you can prove, by health certificates, where you have been for that length of time you are sure to be detained in a quarantine station for twenty days. I got through from Birmingham this morning by having Atlanta and Birmingham health certificates. Several persons were taken from my train this morning and detained at the quarantine station on the L. and N. railroad, five miles north of Montgomery. There is already quite a crowd there, and they seemed to rejoice when they saw others entering the enclosure.

Railroad officers and high officials fare the same as other people. Having been in Atlanta the first of the week while the refugees were coming, I am now practically quarantined myself, as Selma, Charleston and other towns have quarantined against Atlanta because she opened her gates to everybody from the fever district.

Small pox seems to be dying out and is lost sight of on account of yellow fever excitement.

I hope to get through to Savannah and from there I will have to return home, unless Charleston raises her quarantine against Atlanta.

Respectfully,
W. F. T.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 18.

THE INTEREST GROWS.

The Meeting at Grace Church Will Continue.

The revival at Grace M. P. church grows in interest, and it has been decided to continue the meetings for a longer time than was at first contemplated. Rev. Mr. Johnson is preaching some fine sermons and making a splendid reputation.

The meeting last night was the best yet held. Mr. Johnson preached on "The Happening of the Invisible." It was a fine effort and was listened to with great interest by the congregation. Six persons remained for the after meeting, while others asked for prayers.

It is not known just how long the meeting will continue, but if the interest keeps up it will not be closed before the latter part of the week.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend the services to-night and through the remainder of the meeting.

A QUIET SUNDAY.

Instead of Fights the "Meadow" Has Two Sermons.

The police say yesterday was the quietest Sunday they have experienced in a long time. The closing of the "meadow" is having its effect, not a single disturbance occurring in the neighborhood yesterday.

While fighting is going out of fashion in the "meadow," it seems that preaching is becoming more popular. Early yesterday morning "Parson" Moore went down and preached for about an hour and a half. After he was through the woman preacher, of whom we told in Saturday's paper, went down and rang up a small crowd, to which she preached for a while.

Mr. Montague Resigns.

Mr. J. E. Montague has resigned as manager of the Benbow, his resignation to take effect on the fifteenth of October. He takes this course because he and Captain Fisher cannot agree as to the general policy on which the hotel is to be run. Mr. Montague has under consideration several offers one from a point in this State and one from Philadelphia, but nas not yet decided where he will go when he leaves the Benbow. It is rumored that Mr. Morton, formerly of the Morton House here may take charge of the Benbow.

The State Fair.

On account of the North Carolina State Agricultural Fair at Raleigh, the Southern Railway will sell tickets on October 16, 17, 18, 19, 22 and 23 at rate of one first-class limited fare for the round trip, plus 50cts. for one admission to the fair grounds. The fare from Greensboro will be $3.15.

On October 20th and 21st, special tickets will be sold from this city for $2.40, mhich also includes one admission to the fair grounds.
